KIPIKAWI 1979

FIFTY YEARS

Since the first class graduated in 1929, Park has come a long way. To celebrate its 50th birthday, a committee of alumni, teachers and students met to plan a week of special activities.

Martha Pettit and Helen Wood chose pictures for a special commemorative booklet. Regina Ellis and Vivian Moore decorated their home-room door with reminders of events in 1968. Jim Runge accepted a time capsule donated by Carl Nisen, class of 1943. The capsule was filled with student contributions and buried in the Patio, to be opened at the 75th anniversary in 2004.

SUMMER STUDY

On July 2, 1978 a group of thirty would-be geologists boarded a school bus and departed for the Western U.S. and Canada. This trip, the seventh of its kind, was headed by Park science teacher, Harvey Radke. For 37 days the group visited places like Grand Canyon, Mesa Verde, Yellowstone, and Athabaska Glacier. Students participated in fossil fish hunting, rock collecting, gold panning and much hiking. The Radke Trip #8 started preparing for the summer of 1979 in early March. Students accepted for the expedition met regularly to learn the science skills, and organize the group responsibilities and activities for the summer.

IN MEMORIAM

Desiree Mullen was a sophomore at Park this year. On May 17 she passed away after a brief illness. Those who knew her lost a good friend.

Some people carve their initials on trees to be remembered. Others write and take pictures. Is a yearbook worth all the trouble? If Kay Lipke or Kim Parrish had answered that toward the end of May, they might have doubted it. Along with Terri Peshek and Eydie Delvaux, they did the senior section and thought they were entitled to a rest. Instead, a frantic color deadline became their problem. Then a rest? Not with everyone trying to produce another 70 pages of clubs and sports pages. Kay typed and Kim cropped. Brenda Koykkari found herself indexing and typing as soon as the underclass pages were done. Even the photographers became Kipi workers: Andy Yankech chose the sports pictures, Kip Nissen checked croppings, Mike Fennigkoh did the staff pages; and in reverse, Jean Simon became a photographer and finished the ad section. Kelli Gemmel, Dody Mueller and Marcie Neustifter worked on the supplement and Roger Slater accidentally took the picture for its cover. Other credits: the collage on pages 54-55 consisted of headlines from the Milwaukee Journal, Milwaukee Sentinel, Chicago Tribune and Racine Journal Times. Always available with help was Bill Halliday from Charles Studio. Many others worked on the book, too, and they took on unexpected tasks as well. In fact, anyone who spent any time in Publications was apt to be put to work by Judy Davies or Jim Runge, the yearbook and newspaper advisers.
